

Green Financing Series

PART 1 | ESG: CALCULATING CARBON EMISSIONS FOR FINANCIERS AND INVESTOR ASSESSMENT AND REPORTING | WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 2021 | 3:00 P.M. ET

The first event in this three-part series will focus on the foundational issues of data, reporting and calculation, which are the undercarriage for the environmental aspects of ESG.

TOPICS AND PRESENTERS

- Current Method of Bank and Investor ESG Emissions Reporting
  - Speaker: Jamie Martin | Executive Director, Morgan Stanley Global Sustainable Finance
- Emerging Regulatory Trends and Implications
  - Speaker: Caroline Bradley | Professor and Associate Dean, University of Miami School of Law
- Connection with Developing U.S. Government Policy
  - Speaker: Beth Viola | Senior Policy Advisor, Holland & Knight
- Fundamental Data and Methodological Questions
  - Speaker: Jeffrey Wool | Partner and Director of International Law and Policy, Holland & Knight (on secondment to the Aviation Working Group)

INDUSTRIAL SECTORS AND PRESENTERS

- Aviation: Example of Carbon Calculator Developed by Aviation Working Group
  - Speaker: Daniel da Silva | Vice President, Strategic Regulatory Policy, Boeing Capital Corporation; Co-Chair, Aviation Working Group
- Shipping
  - Speakers: Michael Parker | Chairman, Global Shipping, Logistics and Offshore, Citigroup
Jovi Tenev | Partner, Holland & Knight
- Power Generation
  - Speaker: Lara Rios | Partner, Holland & Knight
- Real Estate and Related Financings
  - Speakers: Stephen Humes | Partner, Holland & Knight
Mark Kalpin | Partner, Holland & Knight

UPCOMING SESSIONS:

The dates for the next two webinars in this series will be announced in a future mailing.

- Part 2 | ESG: Green Financing Criteria and Regulation
- Part 3 | ESG: Social Aspects of Green Financing