

John Bennett retired from the Central Intelligence Agency in 2013 after 33 years of service. His senior assignments included: Director, National Clandestine Service (NCS), Deputy Director NCS for Community Humint, Chief, Special Activities Division, and Deputy Chief Africa Division. Mr. Bennett served 18 years overseas, mostly in Africa. He served as a Chief of Station four times. He engaged in Cold War programs directed against Libya and Cuba, managed counter-terrorism operations in East Africa and Southwest

Asia and led collaboration between the NCS and Intelligence Community, Defense and Law Enforcement partners.

Recipient of numerous CIA, IC, and DoD awards, Mr. Bennett has served on the Board of the CIA's "Studies in Intelligence" and as Board member and Chairman, Central Intelligence Retirees' Association (CIRA).

Prior to joining CIA he served as an infantry officer in the US Marine Corps. He has a Bachelor's Degree from Harvard University and a Master's Degree from Georgetown University.