INFORMATION

The United States charges that at all times relevant to this Information:

COUNT ONE
18 U.S.C. §§ 1001, 2
(False Statements)

In or about October 2007, in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, defendant

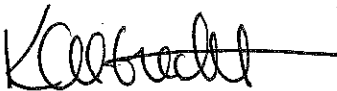

KARL B. RODNEY,

did knowingly and willfully make a materially false, fictitious, and fraudulent statement and representation in an administrative matter within the jurisdiction of a Committee of the United States House of Representatives within the legislative branch of the Government of the United States, in that KARL B. RODNEY falsely certified that the statements on a certification form, which he caused to be submitted and was required to be submitted to the United States House of Representatives in connection with a privately-funded trip for certain Members of the United States House of Representatives, were true, complete, and correct to the best of his knowledge, when in truth and in fact, as KARL B. RODNEY well knew when he made this statement, the certification form was untrue, incomplete and incorrect in that it did not (a) identify all the sponsors of the trip; and (b) failed to disclose all the sources that had earmarked funds and other support to finance aspects of the trip.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1001(a)(2) and (c)(1) and 2.
