

“Receivership”) in the above-captioned case (the “Case”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby files this Receiver’s Third Quarterly Report.

I. BACKGROUND

1. On May 15, 2017 (the “SEC Application Date”), Plaintiff, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), filed its application for the appointment of a receiver for Defendants, Thurman P. Bryant, III and Bryant United Capital Funding, Inc. [Dkt. No. 4] (the “SEC Application”).

2. Specifically, Bryant and BUCF promised investors their funds would be safely preserved in secure escrow accounts and used for the sole purpose of serving as proof of funds to enable BUCF to secure a line of credit with which to pursue a mortgage-related investment program resulting in 30% returns. As Bryant, BUCF, and Wammel knew, these promises were false. No secure escrow accounts existed, and there was no mortgage-related investment program. Complaint, Dkt. No. 1 (the “Complaint”), at ¶ 3. In reality, and directly contrary to representations they made, the Receivership Defendants commingled investor funds in a single deposit account controlled by Bryant, from which he, among other things, (a) funneled approximately $16.2 million to the Wammel Defendants; (b) misappropriated $4.8 million to fund his personal living expenses; and (c) transferred more than $1.5 million to Relief Defendant Goodspeed and Relief Defendant Bryant, Jr., all without investors’ consent or knowledge. Id.

3. On May 15, 2017, after the Court’s review of the SEC Application and upon the Court’s conclusion that the Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this case and personal jurisdiction over the Bryant Defendants, the Court determined that entry of an order appointing a receiver over the Bryant Defendants was both necessary and appropriate to marshal, conserve, hold, and operate all of the Bryant Defendants’ assets pending further order of the Court.

Accordingly, the Court entered the Order Appointing Receiver on May 15, 2017, naming Jennifer Ecklund as the Receiver over the Receivership Estate of the Bryant Defendants. See Dkt. No. 17. The same day, the Court entered the Order Granting Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order, Freezing Assets, Granting Other Equitable Relief, and Setting Hearing for Preliminary Injunction. See Dkt. No. 16.

4. The SEC negotiated and the Court entered on June 2, 2017 the Agreed Order Granting Preliminary Injunction and Other Relief [Dkt. No. 27] (the “Agreed Preliminary Injunction”) among Defendant Bryant, the Receiver, and the SEC.

5. On June 8, 2017, the Wammel Defendants filed an Answer to the Complaint [Dkt. No. 29]. On June 9, 2017, Relief Defendant Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. filed an Answer to the Complaint [Dkt. No. 30]. Despite having been personally served with notice of the suit [see Dkt. No. 28], Relief Defendant Carlos Goodspeed has wholly failed to answer the allegations in the Complaint.

6. On July 10, 2017, Bryant filed an Answer to the Complaint [Dkt. No. 40].

7. The May 15 Order Appointing Receiver was expanded on July 19, 2017 [Dkt. No. 48] (the “Receivership Order”), to add the Wammel Defendants to the Receivership. The Receivership Order did not change the substance of the Receiver’s original powers as set forth in the May 15th Order.

8. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver is charged with marshaling and preserving all the assets of the Receivership Estate (as defined in the Receivership Order). The Receivership Order directed that the Receiver file an initial report within the first 30 days following her appointment (the “Initial Status Reports”), which the Receiver filed on behalf of the Bryant Defendants Receivership on June 14, 2017 and on behalf of the Wammel Defendants Receivership on August 18, 2017. The Receiver herein incorporates the Initial Status Reports [Dkt. Nos. 32 and 95]. The Receivership Order further directs that the Receiver report on a quarterly basis her activities within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter (defined in the Order as the “Quarterly Status Report”), which the Receiver filed on July 31, 2017 and on October 30, 2017 and incorporates Dkt. Nos. 72 and 132 herein. Receivership Order at ¶ 52.

9. In compliance with the Receivership Order, this Quarterly Status Report (the “Third Quarterly Report”) contains the following information at Section III:

- (a) A summary of the operations of the Receiver;
- (b) The amount of cash on hand, the amount and nature of accrued administrative expenses, and the amount of unencumbered funds in the estate;
- (c) A schedule of all the Receiver’s receipts and disbursements (attached as Exhibit A to the [Third] Quarterly Status Report), with one column for the quarterly period covered and a second column for the entire duration of the receivership;
- (d) A description of all known Receivership Property, including approximate or actual valuations, anticipated or proposed dispositions, and reasons for retaining assets where no disposition is intended¹;
- (e) A description of liquidated and unliquidated claims held by the Receivership Estate, including the need for forensic and/or investigatory resources; approximate valuations of claims; and anticipated or proposed methods of enforcing such claims (including likelihood of success in: (i) reducing the claims to judgment; and, (ii) collecting such judgments);
- (f) A list of all known creditors with their addresses and the amounts of their claims;
- (g) The status of Creditor Claims Proceedings, after such proceedings have been commenced; and
- (h) The Receiver’s recommendations for a continuation or discontinuation of the receivership and the reasons for the recommendations.

¹ In further compliance with the Receivership Order, the information contained herein reflects the existence, value, and location of all Receivership Property, and of the extent of liabilities, both those claimed to exist by others and those the Receiver believes to be legal obligations of the Receivership Estate, to the best of the Receiver’s knowledge as of the Reporting Period. See Receivership Order, ¶ 52.

Receivership Order, ¶ 53.

10. Because the Receiver was appointed mid-quarter (May 15, 2017), the First Quarterly Report covered the period May 15, 2017 through June 30, 2017 (the “First Reporting Period”). The Second Quarterly Report covered the period July 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017 (the “Second Reporting Period”). This Third Quarterly Report covers the period October 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017 (the “Reporting Period”).

II. GENERAL OVERVIEW

11. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver actively investigated, marshalled, and liquidated assets of the Receivership Estate pursuant to this Court’s Orders [Dkt. Nos. 105, 106, and 133]. The Receiver also analyzed thousands of documents, interviewed numerous creditors and investors, and worked with various other individuals and counsel in an attempt to locate assets for distribution to stakeholders. The Receiver also prepared for and deposed – to the extent possible – Relief Defendant Carlos Goodspeed as well as established and implemented the claims process for investors. Further, the Receiver prepared for and commenced litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed. Many of the tasks performed by the Receiver apply equally to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants. Accordingly, the statements and reports contained within this Third Quarterly Report should be read to apply equally to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants unless specifically noted to apply to a specific Receivership Estate.

13. The Receivership Order provided for an asset freeze, which resulted in approximately $12,425.00² in funds in accounts located at various financial institutions where Defendant Bryant has signing authority on the accounts being frozen (hereinafter, the “Bryant Defendants’ Frozen Funds”). The Receiver filed a Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 66] (the “Motion to Liquidate”), which included a request to liquidate and deposit the Bryant Defendants’ Frozen Funds into the Receiver’s bank account (the “Receivership Account” or “Receiver’s Account”). On August 27, 2017, the Court granted the Receiver’s Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106]. The Receiver is continuing to work with a financial institution for purposes of facilitating the release of the remaining Bryant Defendants’ Frozen Funds into the Receiver’s Account. The total amount of Bryant Defendants’ Frozen Funds yet to be released is approximately $3,000. Similarly, the Receivership Order provided for an asset freeze of the Wammel Defendants’ assets, which resulted in approximately $250,000 in funds in accounts located at various financial institutions where the Wammel Defendants have signing authority on the accounts being frozen (hereinafter, the “Wammel Defendants’ Frozen Funds”). The Receiver filed her Motion to Enter Agreed Order (1) Authorizing Liquidation of Real Property, Aircraft, Vehicles, Furniture, Fixtures, Equipment, and Other Items and Termination of Certain Leases, (II) to Approve Procedures to Sell Receivership Assets, and (III) to Release Funds from Certain Frozen Bank Accounts into the Receiver’s Account [Dkt. On November 6, 2017, the Court granted the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133]. The Receiver deposited more than $250,000 of the Wammel Defendants’ Frozen Funds into the Receiver’s Account. In addition, the Receiver has identified funds held by various individuals that she believes are Receivership funds, and is working to have those funds brought into the Receiver's Account.

14. The Receiver continued to collect and/or review financial records and statements from financial institutions that may have accounts related to the Receivership Estate. Supplemental document production continues on a rolling basis, and the Receiver will analyze such information to locate, preserve, and obtain all available assets belonging to the Receivership Estate.

15. The Receiver continues her endeavors to analyze and collect evidence and information produced by various individuals and institutions. The Receiver remains in close contact with counsel to the SEC to ensure all documents produced are received and subsequently analyzed. The Receiver also endeavors to interview every interested person willing to be interviewed by the Receiver or her counsel. Several persons agreed to be interviewed and have been helpful in locating relevant information. Further, pursuant to this Court's Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106] and Order granting the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133], the Receiver has accomplished significant liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets and the Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession in order to bring additional funds into the Receivership Estate and alleviate the burden of maintaining the property itself.

B. Cash on Hand / Administrative Expenses

16. The Receiver continues her investigation into assets and liabilities of the Bryant Defendants and Wammel Defendants. The Receiver is actively supplementing her investigation by reviewing mail received (as a result of the mail forwards), documents submitted, and requesting additional information from various sources, including, if necessary, pursuant to subpoenas issued to financial institutions or representatives of entities of interest and/or depositions of persons or representatives of entities of interest. With the liquidation phase of the Receivership nearing an end, the Receiver's focus going forward will be on clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation to bring additional funds into the Receivership Estate and then to bring the Receivership Estate to a conclusion.

17. At or near the date the Receiver was appointed, the Receivership Estate held almost no cash on hand. At the end of the First Reporting Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate were comprised of: (a) approximately $30,000 cash on hand in the Receivership Account; (b) funds totaling approximately $12,425 to be received by the Estate in the near future; (c) illiquid personalty; and (d) potential (and as-yet uninvestigated) causes of action against third parties.³ See First Quarterly Report at ¶¶ 8, 18.

18. At the end of the Second Reporting Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate were comprised of: (a) approximately $44,000 cash on hand in the Receivership Account; (b) funds totaling approximately $350,000 to be received by the Estate in the near future; (c) illiquid personalty; (d) personalty and real property seized from the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants, including more than seven (7) motor vehicles, a 1990 Cessna 650 Citation, and two residential properties with each being over 2,700 square feet; and (e) potential causes of action against third parties (which the Receiver is actively investigating).

19. At the end of the current Reporting Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate include the following: (a) approximately $214,000 cash on hand in the Receivership

³ At this stage, the Receiver estimates the future fraudulent transfer litigation damages to be several million dollars. As is the case in most litigation, the recovery may differ from the damages sustained.

Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed; and (f) potential causes of action against third parties (which the Receiver is actively investigating).⁵ Of note, although there is approximately $214,000 cash on hand in the Receivership Account at the end of the current Reporting Period, the Receiver prepared three checks during the Reporting Period totaling $104,884.68, which were not deposited by the recipients during the Reporting Period.⁶

20. The Receiver's investigation has not had the benefit of the reports that Defendant Bryant and Defendant Wammel were required to file pursuant to the Receivership Order (i.e., the initial statement regarding property or the second statement regarding property). See Receivership Order at ¶¶ 9, 10. Defendant Bryant submitted a sworn statement to the Receiver

⁵ The remaining personal and real property seized by the Receiver is estimated to be valued at over $1.1 million, collectively.

late in the day on June 12, 2017 (the “June Statement”), which the Receiver reviewed and utilized in preparation of the First Quarterly Report, in particular in its identification of potential non-investor creditors. The Receiver understands that Defendant Wammel has invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to these provisions in the Receivership Order. Nevertheless, however, counsel for the Wammel Defendants have been cooperative and continue to confer with the Receiver and her counsel with respect to the location, identification, securing, and return of various Receivership assets.

21. Ordinary Course Expenses. During the Reporting Period, expenditures made from the Receivership Account were for expenses relating to the Receiver’s former horse, imaging seized electronic devices, maintaining the Receiver’s properties, investigations into the Receivership Defendants, production of documents from a financial institution, and banking and wire transfer fees, which totaled $52,994.80. See Lines 10a-e of the attached Exhibit A. The Receiver also incurred expenses relating to statutory fees associated with subpoena documentation ($45.00) and expenses relating to the settlement of certain claims by the landlord of Wammel’s prior residence ($8,500.00). The Receiver prepared checks during the Reporting Period that were not deposited by the recipients during the Reporting Period relating to these expenses.

22. Pursuant to this Court’s Order Approving the Second Interim Fee Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses [Dkt. No. 142], expenditures were also made from the Receivership Account for the payment of authorized professional fees and expenses to the Receiver, which totaled $41,298.22, and T&K, which totaled $338,196.54. See Lines 10a-e of the attached Exhibit A. The Receiver also prepared a check during the Reporting Period to Veritas for the payment of authorized professional fees and expenses, which totaled $96,339.68, that was not deposited during the Reporting Period.

23. Certain expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business by the Receiver during the Reporting Period remain outstanding and will be identified in the reporting period in which they are paid. The Receiver has identified certain ongoing expenses that the Receivership Estate is incurring on a regular and continuing basis in the ordinary course. Of note, pursuant to this Court's Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106] and Order granting the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133], the Receiver terminated or is in the process of terminating as many of these recurring charges as possible to preserve value of the Receivership Estate.

24. Receiver and Retained Professional Fees. In accordance with the Receivership Order, the Receiver and her Retained Professionals are entitled to compensation for services rendered on behalf of the Receivership Estate. As will be detailed in the interim fee applications of the applicable Retained Professional, the Receiver and her Retained Professionals have worked diligently during the Reporting Period to address the myriad issues that have arisen, including, but not limited to, correspondence with financial institutions and interested persons, investigation of assets and liabilities, investigation of invested amounts by investors, preparation of motions and responses to advance the goals of the Receivership, preparation and coordination of liquidation plans, commencement of ancillary litigation, and other related matters.

25. During the Reporting Period, the Receivership Estate incurred expenses for the services of the Receiver and her Retained Professionals (Thompson & Knight LLP and Veritas) (the "Reporting Period Professional Fees"). These amounts are subject to the hold back guidelines established in the Receivership Order. See Receivership Order at ¶ 60. The Receiver and her Retained Professionals have filed and will be filing additional fee applications that provide further detail regarding these fees, and no Reporting Period Professional Fees will be paid without express Court approval.

26. The Receiver is concerned by the continued administrative costs associated with this Case and continues to be cost-conscious while balancing the needs of the interested investors and other stakeholders.

D. Receivership Property

29. Pursuant to this Court's Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106] and Order granting the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133], the Receiver has accomplished significant liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets and the Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession in order to bring additional funds into the Receivership Estate and alleviate the burden of maintaining the property itself.

⁸ The terms and conditions of the referenced settlement agreement are confidential.

30. Upon her appointment, the Receiver took possession of a (former) secondary residence of Wammel. Wammel's wife lived in a 2,700 square-foot home located in a gated community near Houston (the "Wammel Secondary Residence"). In early October 2017, the Receiver asked Samantha Wammel to vacate the Wammel Secondary Residence. The Receiver engaged the services of a real estate agent, and the Wammel Secondary Residence is currently listed for sale.

31. Mr. Wammel also purchased a 3,500 square-foot residence near Houston owned by the Wammel Group (the "Wammel Group Residence").⁹ Stephen Garrett occupies the Wammel Group Residence pursuant to an agreement, and thus the Receiver is working with Mr. Garrett regarding payments and residency.

32. The Receiver secured and took possession of various motor vehicles owned by Wammel. The Receiver is currently working to confirm the ownership and the nature and extent of any liens of additional motor vehicles purportedly owned by Wammel.

33. The Receiver contracted with a broker to assist in the sale of the 1990 Cessna 650 Citation owned by Wammel.

34. The Receiver also remains in possession of a motorcycle from Defendant Bryant's (previously) rented storage units.¹⁰

⁹ The Wammel Group Residence is potentially encumbered by various liens, and there are questions about the validity of those liens that require further investigation and resolution. The Receiver is working to confirm the nature and extent of the liens on the Wammel Group Residence.

35. The Receiver took possession of a horse and related tack belonging to Defendant Bryant. In October 2017, the Receiver sold the horse and no longer has obligations to care and maintain the horse.

36. The Receiver has worked with various consultants to estimate the value of the property belonging to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants and to develop a plan for liquidating same. The liquidation of the Bryant Defendants' assets resulted in approximately $75,000 coming into the Receivership Estate. The liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets resulted in more than $122,000 coming into the Receivership Estate. The Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated.

37. The Receiver has prepared a summary listing of the remaining property of the Receivership Estate, which is attached as Exhibit B hereto. There are some items of interest, such as guns, motor vehicles, and an aircraft.

38. As reflected on Lines 14b - 14c of Exhibit A, the Receiver previously identified additional frozen accounts at various financial institutions. Specifically, the Receiver identified a CD belonging to Defendant Bryant worth approximately $2,054. See Exhibit A at Line 14b. Pursuant to this Court's Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106], the Receiver is working to release this CD into the Receiver's Account. Additionally, the Receiver identified, and became named as the beneficiary of, a life insurance policy on the life of Defendant Bryant with $1,500,000 death benefit (though the policy has no apparent cash value).

39. In accordance with this Court's Order Extending the deadline set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 754 [Dkt. No. 55], the Receiver continued investigating whether the Receivership Estate had any additional leases or property outside of the Eastern District of Texas and ultimately filed a copy of the Receivership Order and the Complaint in the Southern District of Texas and in the Western District of Texas.

40. The Receiver will continue to search for the existence of additional property and assets and track down any leads regarding same. At this time, the Receiver does not anticipate discovering any additional material assets of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants and will focus on the clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation and bringing the Receivership Estate to a conclusion. The Receiver will continue to detail her findings and relevant updates as to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants in future quarterly reports.

E. Claims Held By Receivership Estate

41. The Receiver's investigation is ongoing and includes the review of documents produced by financial institutions or otherwise. The Receiver is also working with Veritas to perform certain forensic analyses. While the Receiver's investigation is ongoing, she has not yet identified all of the claims held by the Receivership Estate and anticipates having additional claims for fraudulent transfer.

42. On December 14, 2017, the Receiver commenced litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed, in the Eastern District of Texas, Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856 [Dkt. No. 1].

43. The Receiver anticipates that letters to investors and third parties relating to transfers received from the Receivership Defendants will be delivered in early 2018.

F. Known Creditors

44. Non-Investor Creditors. The Receiver has identified potential non-investor creditors based on her investigation to date, including review of Receivership Defendants' bank statements, records provided by financial institutions, telephone conversations with creditors, and mail received by the Receivership Estate. The Receiver has taken steps to reduce, as much as possible, recurring charges. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a list of identified or potential non-investor creditors of both the Bryant Defendants and Wammel Defendants. This list does not cover accounts that are solely in the name of Defendant Bryant's wife or Defendant Wammel's wife.

45. Investors. The Receiver has compiled the attached list of presumed investors with the assistance of Veritas' review of financial records and based on the Receiver's review of other records, including investor statements and records seized and provided to the Receiver.¹¹ The investor list is attached as Exhibit D hereto.

46. The Receiver has taken steps to ensure she has up-to-date contact information for each investor identified, including updating investor information as investors contact the Receiver or her counsel.

47. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver received numerous emails and phone calls from investors. The Receiver has asked that all investor communications be made through e-mail or mail.

48. The Receiver has identified approximately 168 investors.¹²

G. Creditor Claims Proceedings

49. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver established a claims process for investors. Investors were notified by mail and electronic distribution. The Receiver and her team are currently reviewing submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation.

¹² None of the identified investors have received a distribution during this Reporting Period.

Currently, there are no established claims proceedings for non-investor creditors in this Case. The Receiver will propose such procedures after the Receiver makes a full evaluation of the estimated recovery to the various investors and non-investor creditors. Further, the Receiver's Liquidation Plans for the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants provided the Receivership Estate with additional liquid assets, and the Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated. With additional liquid assets available in the Receivership Estate, the Receiver will be able to propose a distribution scheme to creditors once all creditor claims proceedings have been established and implemented.

H. Receiver's Recommendations

50. While the Receiver seized control of readily identifiable assets and operations, began her diligence of identifying additional assets and liabilities, and accomplished significant liquidation of the Receivership assets, it is too soon to make a final recommendation as to how the Receivership Estate should be resolved. Accordingly, the Receiver recommends that the Receivership continue in order to allow the Receiver additional time to locate assets and determine how to resolve the Receivership Estate.

I. Court Proceedings/Case Administration

51. During the Second Reporting Period, the Bryant Defendants filed a Motion to Dissolve Temporary Restraining Order and Suspend or Dissolve Order Appointing Receiver. See Dkt. No. 97. To fully and adequately respond to this Motion to Dissolve, the Receiver spent time and resources during the Second Reporting Period preparing the Receiver's Response to Bryant Defendants' Motion to Dissolve/Suspend Temporary Restraining Order and Order Appointing Receiver, in which the Receiver explained the significant need of the temporary restraining order and the Receivership. See Dkt. No. 113. During the Reporting Period on October 4, 2017, the Court denied the Bryant Defendants' Motion to Dissolve Temporary Restraining Order and Suspend or Dissolve Order Appointing Receiver and ordered that the preliminary injunction and Receivership shall remain in place until the issuance of a final decision by the Court in this case. See Dkt. No. 124.

52. Following negotiations with counsel for the Wammel Defendants, on October 17, 2017, the Receiver filed her Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 131], which included a request to liquidate and deposit the Wammel Defendants' Frozen Funds into the Receiver's Account. On November 6, 2017, the Court granted the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133]. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver successfully liquidated Receivership assets, which resulted in approximately $213,000 coming into the Receivership Estate. Additionally, approximately $254,000 of released frozen funds of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants were deposited into the Receiver's account during the Reporting Period. At the end of the current Reporting Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate include the following: (1) a 1990 Cessna 650 Citation; (2) the Wammel Secondary Residence – a 2,700 square-foot home located in a gated community near Houston; (3) the Wammel Group Residence – a 3,500 square-foot residence near Houston; and (4) various motor vehicles. The Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated.

53. On November 9, 2017, the Court entered its Order Granting the Plaintiff's Motion to Compel the Deposition and Discovery Responses from Relief Defendant Carlos Goodspeed [Dkt. No. 135]. The Receiver then prepared for the deposition of Carlos Goodspeed scheduled for November 27, 2017. On November 27, 2017, the Receiver's counsel traveled to Fort Worth, Texas and deposed Carlos Goodspeed. Over the Receiver's and the Plaintiff's objections, Carlos Goodspeed prematurely terminated the deposition. The deposition of Carlos Goodspeed was then scheduled to continue on December 4, 2017. On December 4, 2017, the Receiver's counsel again traveled to Fort Worth, Texas to depose Carlos Goodspeed. Carlos Goodspeed never appeared, and a Certificate of Non-Appearance was obtained. Carlos Goodspeed's actions of terminating the deposition and then failing to appear at the rescheduled deposition cost the Receiver and her team considerable time and resources during the Reporting Period.

54. On December 1, 2017, the Receiver implemented the claims process for investors in this Case. Investors were notified by mail and electronic distribution. The Receiver and her team are currently reviewing submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation.

55. On December 14, 2017, the Receiver commenced litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed, in the Eastern District of Texas, Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856 [Dkt. No. 1].
