FOURTH INTERIM FEE APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

Jennifer Ecklund, the Court-appointed Receiver (the "Receiver") for Defendants Thurman P. Bryant, III ("Bryant") and Bryant United Capital Funding, Inc. ("BUCF") (Bryant and BUCF, collectively, the "Bryant Defendants") and Defendant Arthur F. Wammel ("Wammel"), Defendant Wammel Group, LLC (the "Wammel Group"), and Wammel Group Holdings Partnership ("WGHP") (together Wammel, Wammel Group, and WGHP, the "Wammel Defendants") receivership estates (together, the "Receivership Estate" or the "Receivership") in the above-captioned case (the "Case"), files this Fourth Interim Fee

Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses (the "Fourth Interim Fee Application"), and in support thereof, respectfully states as follows:

I. FEE REQUEST SUMMARY

- 1. This Fourth Interim Fee Application covers the period commencing on January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018 (the "Application Period") and is submitted in accordance with the Amended Order Appointing Receiver [Dkt. No. 48], the local rules of this Court, the Billing Instructions for Receivers in Civil Actions Commenced by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC Billing Instructions"), and other applicable orders of the Court.
- 2. The Fourth Interim Fee Application Period encompasses a time of continued progress in carrying out the Receiver's duties under the Receivership Order. As described more fully in the Receiver's Fourth Quarterly Report (defined below), since January 1, 2018 the Receiver and her team have been working diligently to marshal and liquidate assets of the Receivership Estate, analyze potential causes of action against third parties, and actively participate in ancillary litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed. For example, the Receiver and her team: (i) successfully moved to liquidate and accomplished liquidation of Wammel's (former) secondary residence a 2,700 square-foot home located in a gated community near Houston; (ii) continued liquidation of the remaining Wammel Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession; (iii) continued liquidation of the remaining Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession; (iv) prepared for and deposed Poppy Weber; (v) prepared for and deposed Mark Espino; (vi) prepared for and participated in the Rule 26(f) attorney conference with Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856; (vii) worked with a financial consultant to perform forensic accounting and related analysis regarding, among other things, the intricate, overlapping Ponzi scheme operated by the Bryant and Wammel Defendants identified as part of the Receiver's investigation; (viii) satisfied on-going, ordinary course obligations of the Receivership Estate; (ix) reported on the Receiver's activities to the Court and to investors; (x) subpoenaed various individuals and entities; (xii) analyzed and reviewed submitted documentation from investors and non-investor creditors; (xiii) coordinated and sent letters to investors and third parties relating to transfers received from the Receivership Defendants; and (xiv) established and implemented the claims process for non-investor creditors.

3. The following tables summarize the fees and expenses the Receivership Estate, incurred for the Receiver, her counsel, and other professionals, respectively, during the Application Period:

RECEIVER

&lt;sup>1</sup> The fees and expenses incurred by the Receiver and her counsel, T&K, are included in this Third Interim Fee Application. The Receiver is a partner at T&K and thus any and all payment for fees and expenses to the Receiver and her counsel will be paid to T&K.

- 4. As further described herein, the Receiver seeks the Court's approval of invoices for interim fees and expenses, incurred between January 1, 2018 and March 31, 2018, in the amount of $244,207.97, which reflects voluntary reduction and a more than 20% reduction in hourly rates across all timekeepers. The Court previously approved the professional fees and expenses totaling $765,103.11 in its Order Approving the Second Interim Fee Application and the professional fees and expenses totaling $219,776.31 in its Order Approving the Third Interim Fee Application.
- 5. The following tables summarize the total balance of fees and expenses the Receivership Estate incurred for the Receiver, her counsel, and other professionals, respectively:

6. The Receiver first requests the Court's approval of invoices for interim fees and expenses of all professionals covering this Application Period of $244,207.97. Receiver	T&K	Veritas	Total Fees
$29,782.74	$234,574.86	$41,207.97	$305,565.57

The above amount of total fees requested for payment represents approximately one-third of the total fees outstanding in this matter. Although the Receiver has funds to cover a more significant portion of fees to the Receiver and her counsel, at this time, in an effort to maximize the value of the estate for a future distribution, the Receiver requests payment of only $305,565.57 of professional fees and expenses.

B. Fees and Expenses

64. Ordinary Course Expenses. During the Application Period, and as detailed in the Fourth Quarterly Report, expenditures made from the Receivership Account were for expenses relating to the Receiver's aircraft, former motorcycle, the Receiver's properties, liquidating the Receiver's former personalty and real property, and banking and wire transfer fees, which totaled $46,611.13. The Receiver also incurred expenses relating to the Receiver's properties, which totaled $9,500.00 and for which the Receiver prepared checks during the Application Period that were not deposited by the recipient during the Application Period.

&lt;sup>17</sup> The two checks totaling $9,500 were the following: (1) check for $9,400.00 for payment related to the Wammel Group residence and (2) check for $100.00 for payment related to the Wammel Group residence. The check for $45.00 prepared during the Third Application Period is for statutory fees associated with subpoena documentation.

&lt;sup>18</sup> These assets are described in ¶¶ 63 and 72 and approximately valued at more than $600,000. Further, this estimated amount does not include the Receiver's potential and ongoing causes of action against third parties.

65. Receiver and Retained Professional Fees. During the Application Period, the Retained Professionals (T&K and Veritas) provided services on behalf of the Receiver and the Receivership Estate. Specifically, the fees and expenses for the services of the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas total approximately $244,207.97 (the "Application Period Professional Fees").

66. These Application Period Professional Fees include a voluntary reduction of at least 20% by the Receivership Estate professionals from their standard hourly rates.

C. Work Performed for the Benefit of the Receivership Estate<sup>19</sup>

67. As further described in the Receiver's First Quarterly Report, Second Quarterly

Report, Third Quarterly Report, and Fourth Quarterly Report, the Receiver, assisted by T&K and Veritas, performed numerous tasks in connection with her duties under the Receivership Order.

During the Application Period, the Receiver worked diligently to marshal and liquidate assets of the Receivership Estate, analyzed potential causes of action against third parties, and actively participated in ancillary litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed. The Receiver's tasks included (i) preserving hard and electronic data, (ii) analyzing thousands of documents, (iii) interviewing numerous creditors and investors, and (iv) working with various individuals and counsel to liquidate assets for distribution to creditors.

68. The date the Case is expected to close is presently unknown. The Receiver expects to continue her efforts to recover assets for the benefit of the Receivership Estate, which may require protracted litigation.

69. During the Third Application Period, the Receiver established a claims process for investors. Investors were notified by mail and electronic distribution. The Receiver and her

<sup>19</sup> The Receiver and T&K incorporate the Receiver's First Quarterly Report, Liquidation Plan for the Bryant Defendants, Agreed Order Granting Liquidation Against the Wammel Defendants, Second Quarterly Report, Third Quarterly Report, and Fourth Quarterly Report as if set out fully herein.

team continue to review submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation.

During the current Application Period, the Receiver established a claims process for non-investor creditors in this Case. The Receiver and her team are currently reviewing submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation. Further, the Receiver's Liquidation Plans for the Receivership Defendants provided the Receivership Estate with additional liquid assets, and the Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated. With additional liquid assets available in the Receivership Estate, the Receiver will be able to propose a distribution scheme to creditors.

70. During the Application Period, Veritas performed many tasks in connection with this Case. Specifically, Veritas continued to update and finalize the net winning and net losing analysis for the BUCF and Wammel Group investors, which included compiling and analyzing all investor funds deposited to Bryant and Wammel, all monthly disbursements paid back to investors, any potential bonus and referral payments made to investors, and documentation submitted by investors. Moreover, Veritas was instrumental in (i) continuing to investigate and research specific transactions to identify potential fraudulent transfers and/or recoverable assets, including transfers to various individuals and entities; (ii) continuing to identify and analyze transactions and parties that could be further investigated for potential fraudulent transfers and/or recoverable assets; and (iii) continuing to identify transactions and parties that contained high volume and/or high dollar amounts paid to entities for unknown purposes. Furthermore, Veritas provided the Receiver and T&K with documentation supporting the potential fraudulent transfers and the net winning and net losing analysis for the BUCF and Wammel Group investors.

Finally, Veritas conferred with T&K and the Receiver regarding case strategy. All of these activities were done in furtherance of the Receiver identifying Receivership Estate assets and liabilities so that distributions can ultimately be made to investors and non-investor creditors.

71. Similarly, during the Application Period, the bulk of the work performed by T&K was related to (i) successfully moving to liquidate and accomplishing liquidation of Wammel's

(former) secondary residence – a 2,700 square-foot home located in a gated community near

Houston; (ii) continuing liquidation of the remaining Wammel Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession; (iii) continuing liquidation of the remaining Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession; (iv) preparing for and deposing Poppy Weber; (v) preparing for and deposing Mark Espino; (vi) preparing for and participating in the Rule 26(f) attorney conference with Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856; (vii) working with a financial consultant to perform forensic accounting and related analysis regarding, among other things, the intricate, overlapping Ponzi scheme operated by the Bryant and Wammel Defendants identified as part of the Receiver's investigation; (viii) satisfying on-going, ordinary course obligations of the Receivership Estate; (ix) reporting on the Receiver's activities to the Court and to investors; (x) subpoening various individuals and entities; (xii) analyzing and reviewing submitted documentation from investors and non-investor creditors; (xiii) coordinating and sending letters to investors and third parties relating to transfers received from the Receivership

Defendants; and (xiv) establishing and implementing the claims process for non-investor creditors.

72. Since her appointment, the Receiver and her team have been working diligently to investigate and marshal assets of the Receivership Estate in order to bolster the amount available for distribution to stakeholders. During the Application Period, the Receiver successfully liquidated Receivership Assets, which resulted in approximately $320,585 coming into the Receivership Estate. Additionally, approximately $2,700 of released frozen funds of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants were deposited into the Receiver's account during the Application Period. At the end of the current Application Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate include the following: (1) a 1990 Cessna 650 Citation; (2) Defendant

Wammel Group's residential property – a 3,500 square-foot residence near Houston; and (3) various firearms. The Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated.

73. In addition to successfully liquidating Receivership assets, the Receiver and her team spent considerable time and resources (1) analyzing potential claims against third parties,

(2) analyzing and reviewing submitted documentation from investors and non-investor creditors,

(3) preparing for and deposing Poppy Weber and Mark Espino, and (4) participating in ongoing litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed in Ancillary Civil Action No.

4:17-cv-00856.

74. As explained throughout this Fourth Interim Fee Application and as described more fully in the Receiver's Fourth Quarterly Report, the Receiver and her team continued to make significant progress in unraveling the Bryant Defendants' and Wammel Defendants' fraud and in liquidating Receivership assets in order to realize the greatest return for creditors. As a result of these efforts, the Receiver and her team substantially increased the value of the Receivership Estate during the Application Period. Between the successful liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets and the Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession and the release of frozen funds of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants into the Receiver's account, the Receiver and her team brought more than $323,285 into the Receivership

Estate during this Application Period.

IV. REQUEST FOR APPROVAL

75. Through this Fourth Interim Fee Application, the Receiver seeks interim approval of the fees and expenses of the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas subject to the Hold Back, as further described below.

As noted in the T&K Application, both the Receiver and the T&K professionals and paraprofessionals<sup>21</sup> assisting the Receiver on this matter agreed to a voluntary reduction of their standard hourly rates. The T&K invoices attached hereto reflect that reduction, which represents a significant savings for the Receivership Estate. Further, T&K reviewed its billings, and, in such review, exercised appropriate judgment in an effort to ensure that time and expenses are properly billed and billing adjustments were properly made before generating invoices and filing this Fourth Interim Fee Application. T&K further reduced certain entries in light of the Receiver's limited resources, which reductions are also reflected in its invoices and total over $81,000 or over 33% of the total fees for the Application Period (as reflected in the Invoices attached hereto).

<sup>20</sup> This amount does not include the potential future litigation by the Receiver for fraudulent transfer, which accounts for damages to the Receivership of several million dollars. As is the case in most litigation, the recovery may differ from the damages sustained.

- 77. Hold Back. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, interim fee applications also "may be subject to a holdback in the amount of 20% of the amount of fees and expenses for each application filed with the Court" (the "Hold Back"). Dkt. No. 48 at ¶ 60. The Receivership Order further provides that "[t]he total amounts held back during the course of the receivership will be paid out at the discretion of the Court as part of the final fee application submitted at the close of the receivership." Dkt. No. 48 at ¶ 60. Thus, the amount requested in this Fourth Interim Fee Application may be subject to the Hold Back.
- 78. In accordance with the SEC Billing Instructions, the Receiver submitted the Fourth Interim Fee Application to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") for review prior to submission to the Court. The SEC has reviewed the Fourth Interim Fee Application and advised the Receiver concerning certain formatting issues related to its invoices, and the Receiver has made such changes.

of actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Application Period. The Receiver has reviewed and approved T&K's time records and invoices and has also undertaken a review of her own fees and expenses. Based on the complexity of the Case, the Receiver respectfully submits that the requested compensation is reasonable.

81. All legal services performed by T&K were performed for and on behalf of the Receiver and not on behalf of any other individual or entity. No agreement or understanding exists between T&K and any other entity for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in connection with this Case. The Receiver and T&K's services have been substantial, necessary, and beneficial to the Receivership Estate.

B. Fees of Veritas

- 82. Fee Breakdown by Activity. Veritas has maintained the Veritas Fees by activity and by individual professional during the Application Period. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a copy of the Veritas invoices, which summarizes the respective number of hours incurred relative to each task by Veritas professionals who performed services on behalf of the Receiver during the Application Period.
- 83. The following table summarizes the task description for the services that Veritas rendered during the Application Period:

TASK DESCRIPTION	HOURS WORKED	TOTAL FEES, SUBJECT TO THE HOLD BACK
[F170] Forensic Accounting	127	$27,284.25

84. Expense Breakdown. Further, Veritas has maintained a description of the Veritas Expenses incurred during the Application Period. Also included in Exhibit C is a summary of all Veritas Expenses incurred during the Application Period.

85. All services performed by Veritas were performed for and on behalf of the Receiver and not on behalf of any other individual or entity. No agreement or understanding exists between Veritas and any other entity for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in connection with this Case. The Receiver and Veritas' services have been substantial, necessary, and beneficial to the Receivership Estate. Based upon the total time expended and the complexity of this Case, the Receiver believes the Veritas Fees and Expenses sought herein to be reasonable and appropriate.

V. MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST

- 86. Under governing law, following a determination that services were rendered and costs expended in furtherance of the Receivership, the Court may award compensation for the presented fees and costs. When determining an award of attorneys' fees, the Court should use the lodestar method of multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by the reasonable hourly rate. See, e.g., Louisiana Power & Light Co. v. Kellstrom, 50 F.3d 319, 323-24 (5th Cir. 1995) (citing Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). A reasonable hourly rate is the ordinary fee for similar work in the community. Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 718 (5th Cir. 1974).
- 87. As set out in more detail in the First Quarterly Report, the Second Quarterly Report, the Third Quarterly Report, and the Fourth Quarterly Report, the Receiver, assisted by T&K and Veritas, has made significant progress in unraveling the Bryant Defendants' and Wammel Defendants' fraud through her seizure, inventory, and investigation of the documents, data, assets, and liabilities of the Receivership Estate. Further, the T&K lead attorneys in this Case have expended significant amounts of time and energy in order to stabilize this Case, such as successfully liquidating the Bryant Defendants' assets and the Wammel Defendants' assets to provide the Receivership Estate with additional assets in order to propose a distribution plan to creditors and instituting ancillary litigation to further recover Receivership assets.

88. Further, the fees and expenses requested in this Fourth Interim Fee Application in connection with, among other things, locating, securing, and liquidating assets of the Receivership Estate in order to propose a distribution scheme to creditors are reasonable compared to the no less than $23,000,000 investor funds at risk.

89. Other factors support this Court awarding the requested fees and expenses in this Fourth Interim Fee Application. For instance, the fraud is alleged to have been ongoing since at least 2011, which requires extensive review of records and assessment of transfers and alleged business activities. In addition, Defendant Bryant is proceeding pro se, which has required additional conferences and investigation than is often needed when a defendant is represented by counsel. Also, the assets of the Receivership consist largely of personalty from the former residences of Defendant Bryant and Defendant Wammel as well as real property seized from the Wammel Defendants. Further, Defendant Bryant is involved in multiple businesses, all of which have required often tedious investigation across multiple cities.

90. For the reasons set forth above, the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas have incurred reasonable fees and costs consistent with the Receivership Order, and approval of these fees on an interim basis, subject to the Hold Back, is appropriate and warranted in consideration of the above-described services in this Case during the Application Period.

91. Of the fees and expenses detailed herein, in recognition of the Case status and Receivership resources, at this time the Receiver is only seeking authority for payment of approximately one-third of the total professional fees and expenses outstanding in this matter.

Although the Receiver has funds to cover a more significant portion of fees to the Receiver and her counsel, at this time, in an effort to maximize the value of the estate for a future distribution, the Receiver requests payment of only $305,565.57 of professional fees and expenses. The tables below show a breakdown of the fees incurred by the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas during the Application Period:

FEES REQUESTED FOR APPROVAL (January 1, 2018 – March 31, 2018)

Receiver	T&K	Veritas	Total Fees

Receiver	T&K	Veritas	Total Fees
$29,782.74	$234,574.86	$41,207.97	$305,565.57

WHEREFORE, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Court enter an order (i) approving and authorizing, on an interim basis, the Application Period Professional Fees, totaling $244,207.97; (ii) authorizing payment of professional fees and expenses, totaling $305,565.57 and (iii) awarding such other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

ORDER APPROVING FOURTH INTERIM FEE APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

On this date, the Court considered the Receiver's Fourth Interim Fee Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses (the "Fourth Interim Fee Application"). The Court, having considering the relief requested in the Fourth Interim Fee Application, the invoices submitted in support, and the Certification included therein, finds that proper and adequate notice of the Fourth Interim Fee Application has been given and that no other or further notice is necessary and that the Application Period Professional Fees, totaling $244,207.97 (the
