(C) ARTHUR F. WAMMEL; (D) WAMMEL GROUP, LLC; AND
(E) WAMMEL GROUP HOLDINGS PARTNERSHIP
(QUARTER ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 2018)

Jennifer Ecklund, the Court-appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) for Defendants Thurman P. Bryant, III (“Bryant”) and Bryant United Capital Funding, Inc. (“BUCF”) (Bryant and BUCF, collectively, the “Bryant Defendants”) and Defendant Arthur F. Wammel (“Wammel”), Defendant Wammel Group, LLC (the “Wammel Group”), and Wammel Group Holdings Partnership (“WGHP”) (together Wammel, Wammel Group, and WGHP, the “Wammel Defendants”) receivership estates (together, the “Receivership Estate” or the “Receivership”) in the above-captioned case (the “Case”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby files this Receiver’s Sixth Quarterly Report.

I. BACKGROUND

1. On May 15, 2017 (the “SEC Application Date”), Plaintiff, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), filed its application for the appointment of a receiver for Defendants, Thurman P. Bryant, III and Bryant United Capital Funding, Inc. [Dkt. No. 4] (the “SEC Application”).

2. Specifically, Bryant and BUCF promised investors their funds would be safely preserved in secure escrow accounts and used for the sole purpose of serving as proof of funds to enable BUCF to secure a line of credit with which to pursue a mortgage-related investment program resulting in 30% returns. As Bryant, BUCF, and Wammel knew, these promises were false. No secure escrow accounts existed, and there was no mortgage-related investment program. Amended Complaint, Dkt. No. 154 (the “Amended Complaint”), at ¶ 4. In reality, and directly contrary to representations they made, the Receivership Defendants commingled investor funds in a single deposit account controlled by Bryant, from which he, among other things, (a) funneled approximately $16.1 million to the Wammel Defendants; (b) misappropriated $4.8 million to fund his personal living expenses; and (c) transferred more than $1.5 million to Defendant Goodspeed and Relief Defendant Bryant, Jr., all without investors’ consent or knowledge. Id.

3. On May 15, 2017, after the Court’s review of the SEC Application and upon the Court’s conclusion that the Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this case and personal jurisdiction over the Bryant Defendants, the Court determined that entry of an order appointing a receiver over the Bryant Defendants was both necessary and appropriate to marshal, conserve, hold, and operate all of the Bryant Defendants' assets pending further order of the Court. Accordingly, the Court entered the Order Appointing Receiver on May 15, 2017, naming Jennifer Ecklund as the Receiver over the Receivership Estate of the Bryant Defendants. See Dkt. No. 17. The same day, the Court entered the Order Granting Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order, Freezing Assets, Granting Other Equitable Relief, and Setting Hearing for Preliminary Injunction. See Dkt. No. 16.

4. The SEC negotiated and the Court entered on June 2, 2017 the Agreed Order Granting Preliminary Injunction and Other Relief [Dkt. No. 27] (the “Agreed Preliminary Injunction”) among Defendant Bryant, the Receiver, and the SEC.

5. On June 8, 2017, the Wammel Defendants filed an Answer to the Complaint [Dkt. No. 29]. On June 9, 2017, Relief Defendant Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. filed an Answer to the Complaint [Dkt. No. 30]. Despite having been personally served with notice of the suit [see Dkt. No. 28], Relief Defendant Carlos Goodspeed has wholly failed to answer the allegations in the Complaint.

6. On July 10, 2017, Bryant filed an Answer to the Complaint [Dkt. No. 40].

7. The May 15 Order Appointing Receiver was expanded on July 19, 2017 [Dkt. No. 48] (the “Receivership Order”), to add the Wammel Defendants to the Receivership. The Receivership Order did not change the substance of the Receiver's original powers as set forth in the May 15th Order.

8. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver is charged with marshaling and preserving all the assets of the Receivership Estate (as defined in the Receivership Order). The Receivership Order directed that the Receiver file an initial report within the first 30 days following her appointment (the “Initial Status Reports”), which the Receiver filed on behalf of the Bryant Defendants Receivership on June 14, 2017 and on behalf of the Wammel Defendants Receivership on August 18, 2017. The Receiver herein incorporates the Initial Status Reports [Dkt. Nos. 32 and 95]. The Receivership Order further directs that the Receiver report on a quarterly basis her activities within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter (defined in the Order as the “Quarterly Status Report”). The Receiver filed the First Quarterly Report on July 31, 2017, the Second Quarterly Report on October 30, 2017, the Third Quarterly Report on January 30, 2018, the Fourth Quarterly Report on April 30, 2018, the Fifth Quarterly Report on July 30, 2018, and incorporates Dkt. Nos. 72, 132, 156, 202, and 273 herein. Receivership Order at ¶ 52.

9. In compliance with the Receivership Order, this Quarterly Status Report (the “Sixth Quarterly Report”) contains the following information at Section III:

- (a) A summary of the operations of the Receiver;
- (b) The amount of cash on hand, the amount and nature of accrued administrative expenses, and the amount of unencumbered funds in the estate;
- (c) A schedule of all the Receiver’s receipts and disbursements (attached as Exhibit A to the [Sixth] Quarterly Status Report), with one column for the quarterly period covered and a second column for the entire duration of the receivership;
- (d) A description of all known Receivership Property, including approximate or actual valuations, anticipated or proposed dispositions, and reasons for retaining assets where no disposition is intended¹;
- (e) A description of liquidated and unliquidated claims held by the Receivership Estate, including the need for forensic and/or investigatory resources; approximate valuations of claims; and anticipated or proposed methods of enforcing such claims (including likelihood of success in:
 - (i) reducing the claims to judgment; and,
 - (ii) collecting such judgments);

¹ In further compliance with the Receivership Order, the information contained herein reflects the existence, value, and location of all Receivership Property, and of the extent of liabilities, both those claimed to exist by others and those the Receiver believes to be legal obligations of the Receivership Estate, to the best of the Receiver’s knowledge as of the Reporting Period. See Receivership Order, ¶ 52.

- (f) A list of all known creditors with their addresses and the amounts of their claims;
- (g) The status of Creditor Claims Proceedings, after such proceedings have been commenced; and
- (h) The Receiver's recommendations for a continuation or discontinuation of the receivership and the reasons for the recommendations.

Receivership Order, ¶ 53.

10. Because the Receiver was appointed mid-quarter (May 15, 2017), the First Quarterly Report covered the period May 15, 2017 through June 30, 2017 (the “First Reporting Period”). The Second Quarterly Report covered the period July 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017 (the “Second Reporting Period”). The Third Quarterly Report covered the period October 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017 (the “Third Reporting Period”). The Fourth Quarterly Report covered the period January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018 (the “Fourth Reporting Period”). The Fifth Quarterly Report covers the period April 1, 2018 through June 30, 2018 (the “Fifth Reporting Period”). This Sixth Quarterly Report covers the period July 1, 2018 through September 30, 2018 (the “Reporting Period”).

II. GENERAL OVERVIEW

11. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver actively liquidated assets of the Receivership Estate, analyzed causes of action against third parties, and actively participated in the ongoing litigation against Carlos Goodspeed in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856, against certain Winning Investors in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359, and against certain Transferees in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360. The Receiver also analyzed thousands of documents, interviewed numerous creditors and investors, and worked with various other individuals and counsel in an attempt to locate assets for distribution to stakeholders. Many of the tasks performed by the Receiver apply equally to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants. Accordingly, the statements and reports contained within this Sixth Quarterly Report should be read to apply equally to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants unless specifically noted to apply to a specific Receivership Estate.

13. The Receivership Order provided for an asset freeze, which resulted in approximately $12,425.00² in funds in accounts located at various financial institutions where Defendant Bryant has signing authority on the accounts being frozen (hereinafter, the “Bryant Defendants’ Frozen Funds”). The Receiver filed a Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 66] (the “Motion to Liquidate”), which included a request to liquidate and deposit the Bryant Defendants’ Frozen Funds into the Receiver’s bank account (the “Receivership Account” or “Receiver’s Account”). On August 27, 2017, the Court granted the Receiver’s Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106].

14. Similarly, the Receivership Order provided for an asset freeze of the Wammel Defendants’ assets, which resulted in approximately $250,000 in funds in accounts located at various financial institutions where the Wammel Defendants have signing authority on the accounts being frozen (hereinafter, the “Wammel Defendants’ Frozen Funds”). The Receiver filed her Motion to Enter Agreed Order (I) Authorizing Liquidation of Real Property, Aircraft, Vehicles, Furniture, Fixtures, Equipment, and Other Items and Termination of Certain Leases, (II) to Approve Procedures to Sell Receivership Assets, and (III) to Release Funds from Certain Frozen Bank Accounts into the Receiver’s Account [Dkt. No. 131] (the “Motion to Enter Agreed Order”), which included a request to liquidate and deposit the Wammel Defendants’ Frozen Funds into the Receiver’s Account. On November 6, 2017, the Court granted the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133]. In addition, the Receiver identified funds held by various individuals that she believes are Receivership funds and is working to have those funds brought into the Receiver’s Account.

² Amount does not include frozen accounts where Defendant Bryant was a signatory but the account was in a name other than that of Bryant or Bryant United Capital Funding.

15. The Receiver continued to collect and/or review financial records and statements from financial institutions that may have accounts related to the Receivership Estate. Supplemental document production continues on a rolling basis, and the Receiver will analyze such information to locate, preserve, and obtain all available assets belonging to the Receivership Estate.

16. The Receiver continues her endeavors to analyze and collect evidence and information produced by various individuals and institutions. The Receiver remains in close contact with counsel to the SEC to ensure all documents produced are received and subsequently analyzed. The Receiver also endeavors to interview every interested person willing to be interviewed by the Receiver or her counsel. Several persons agreed to be interviewed and have been helpful in locating relevant information. Further, pursuant to this Court's Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106], Order granting the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133], and Order granting the Receiver's Emergency Agreed Motion to Approve Private Sale of Real Property Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 174], the Receiver has accomplished significant liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets and the Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession in order to bring additional funds into the Receivership Estate and alleviate the burden of maintaining the property itself.

B. Cash on Hand / Administrative Expenses

17. The Receiver continues her investigation into assets and liabilities of the Bryant Defendants and Wammel Defendants. The Receiver is actively supplementing her investigation by reviewing mail received (as a result of the mail forwards), documents submitted, and requesting additional information from various sources, including, if necessary, pursuant to subpoenas issued to financial institutions or representatives of entities of interest and/or depositions of persons or representatives of entities of interest. With the liquidation phase of the Receivership nearing an end, the Receiver's focus going forward will be on clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation to bring additional funds into the Receivership Estate and then to bring the Receivership Estate to a conclusion.

18. At or near the date the Receiver was appointed, the Receivership Estate held almost no cash on hand. At the end of the First Reporting Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate were comprised of: (a) approximately $30,000 cash on hand in the Receivership Account; (b) funds totaling approximately $12,425 to be received by the Estate in the near future; (c) illiquid personalty; and (d) potential (and as-yet uninvestigated) causes of action against third parties.³ See First Quarterly Report at ¶¶ 8, 18.

The Receiver understands that Defendant Wammel has invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to these provisions in the Receivership Order. 9/28/2018		$500.00	Settlement ²⁵

33. As previously stated, disbursements that have been made by the Receiver from the Receiver's Account are identified in Exhibit A at Lines 10a-e for expenses relating to the Receiver's properties and banking fees. Further, pursuant to this Court's Order Approving the Fourth Interim Fee Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses [Dkt. No. 268] and Order Approving the Fifth Interim Fee Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses [Dkt. No. 284], the Receiver made payments of authorized professional fees and expenses during the Reporting Period to Veritas, the Receiver, and Thompson & Knight LLP.

D. Receivership Property

34. Pursuant to this Court's Order granting the Receiver's Motion to Liquidate and Terminate [Dkt. No. 106], Order granting the Motion to Enter Agreed Order [Dkt. No. 133], and Order granting the Receiver's Emergency Agreed Motion to Approve Private Sale of Real Property Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 174], the Receiver has accomplished significant liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets and the Bryant Defendants' assets in the Receiver's possession in order to bring additional funds into the Receivership Estate and alleviate the burden of maintaining the property itself.

²³ The terms and conditions of the referenced settlement are confidential.

²⁴ The terms and conditions of the referenced settlement are confidential.

²⁵ The terms and conditions of the referenced settlement are confidential.

35. Upon her appointment, the Receiver took possession of a (former) secondary residence of Wammel. Wammel's wife lived in a 2,700 square-foot home located in a gated community near Houston (the "Wammel Secondary Residence"). In early October 2017, the Receiver asked Samantha Wammel to vacate the Wammel Secondary Residence. The Receiver engaged the services of a real estate agent, and the Wammel Secondary Residence was sold in March 2018 in accordance with the Court's Order granting the Receiver's Emergency Agreed Motion to Approve Private Sale of Real Property Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, and Encumbrances [Dkt. No. 174].

36. Mr. Wammel also purchased a 3,500 square-foot residence near Houston owned by the Wammel Group (the "Wammel Group Residence").²⁶ Stephen Garrett occupies the Wammel Group Residence pursuant to an agreement, and thus the Receiver is working with Mr. Garrett regarding payments and residency.

37. The Receiver contracted with a broker to assist in the sale of the 1990 Cessna 650 Citation owned by Wammel. This Aircraft has been the subject of multiple Orders of this Court, which provided the Receiver with authorization to liquidate this valuable Receivership Asset for the benefit of the aggrieved investors. In July 2018, the sale of the Aircraft closed and the purchaser submitted its application for registration of the Aircraft to the FAA. On September 5, 2018, the Receiver received the payment for the sale of the Aircraft.

38. In February 2018, the Receiver sold a motorcycle from Defendant Bryant's (previously) rented storage units.²⁷

²⁶ The Wammel Group Residence is potentially encumbered by various liens, and there are questions about the validity of those liens that require further investigation and resolution. The Receiver is working to confirm the nature and extent of the liens on the Wammel Group Residence.

²⁷ The Receiver coordinated with the lienholder regarding the sale of the motorcycle.

39. The Receiver has worked with various consultants to estimate the value of the property belonging to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants and to develop a plan for liquidating same. The liquidation of the Bryant Defendants' assets resulted in approximately $83,000 coming into the Receivership Estate. The liquidation of the Wammel Defendants' assets resulted in more than $947,000 coming into the Receivership Estate. The Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated.

40. The Receiver has prepared a summary listing of the remaining property of the Receivership Estate, which is attached as Exhibit B hereto. There are some items of interest, including real property.

41. As reflected on Lines 14b - 14c of Exhibit A, the Receiver identified additional frozen accounts at various financial institutions.²⁸ Additionally, the Receiver identified, and became named as the beneficiary of, a life insurance policy on the life of Defendant Bryant with $1,500,000 death benefit (though the policy has no apparent cash value).

42. In accordance with this Court's Order Extending the Deadline set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 754 [Dkt. No. 55], the Receiver continued investigating whether the Receivership Estate had any additional leases or property outside of the Eastern District of Texas and ultimately filed a copy of the Receivership Order and the Complaint in the Southern District of Texas and in the Western District of Texas.

43. The Receiver will continue to search for the existence of additional property and assets and track down any leads regarding same. At this time, the Receiver does not anticipate discovering any additional material assets of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants and will focus on the clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation and bringing the Receivership Estate to a conclusion. The Receiver will continue to detail her findings and relevant updates as to the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants in future quarterly reports.

²⁸ This amount (approximately $1,700) includes frozen accounts where Defendant Bryant was a signatory but the account was in a name other than that of Bryant or Bryant United Capital Funding.

E. Claims Held By Receivership Estate

44. The Receiver's investigation is ongoing and includes the review of documents produced by financial institutions or otherwise. The Receiver is also working with Veritas to perform certain forensic analyses. At this time, the Receiver will focus on the clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation and bringing the Receivership Estate to a conclusion.

45. On December 14, 2017, the Receiver commenced litigation against Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. and Carlos Goodspeed, in the Eastern District of Texas, Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856 [Dkt. No. 1]. The Receiver is actively participating in this ongoing litigation.

46. On May 15, 2018, the Receiver commenced litigation against certain Winning Investors, in the Eastern District of Texas, Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359 [Dkt. No. 1]. The Receiver is actively participating in this ongoing litigation.

47. On May 15, 2018, the Receiver commenced litigation against certain Transferees, in the Eastern District of Texas, Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360 [Dkt. No. 1]. The Receiver is actively participating in this ongoing litigation.

48. On June 26, 2018, Potts Law Firm filed suit in the Eastern District of Texas, on the Receiver's behalf, against Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (Case No. 4:18-cv-00452). On August 6, 2018, this Court entered its Order Appointing Special Receiver [Dkt. No. 274], in which Timothy Micah Dortch of Potts Law Firm was appointed as Special Receiver for the limited purpose of overseeing the Receivership Estate's pursuit of claims and defenses against Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.

49. Non-Investor Creditors. The Receiver has identified potential non-investor creditors based on her investigation to date, including review of Receivership Defendants' bank statements, records provided by financial institutions, telephone conversations with creditors, and mail received by the Receivership Estate. The Receiver has taken steps to reduce, as much as possible, recurring charges. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a list of identified or potential non-investor creditors of both the Bryant Defendants and Wammel Defendants. This list does not cover accounts that are solely in the name of Defendant Bryant's wife or Defendant Wammel's wife.

50. Investors. The Receiver has compiled the attached list of presumed investors with the assistance of Veritas' review of financial records and based on the Receiver's review of other records, including investor statements and records seized and provided to the Receiver.²⁹ The investor list is attached as Exhibit D hereto.

51. The Receiver has taken steps to ensure she has up-to-date contact information for each investor identified, including updating investor information as investors contact the Receiver or her counsel.

52. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver received numerous emails and phone calls from investors. The Receiver has asked that all investor communications be made through e-mail or mail.

53. The Receiver has identified approximately 168 investors.³⁰

³⁰ None of the identified investors have received a distribution during this Reporting Period.

F. Creditor Claims Proceedings

54. During the Third Reporting Period, the Receiver established a claims process for investors. Investors were notified by mail and electronic distribution. The Receiver and her team continue to review submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation. During the Fourth Reporting Period, the Receiver established a claims process for non-investor creditors in this Case. Non-investor creditors were notified by mail distribution. The Receiver and her team continue to review submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation. Further, the Receiver's Liquidation Plans for the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants provided the Receivership Estate with additional liquid assets, and the Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated. With additional liquid assets available in the Receivership Estate, the Receiver will be able to propose a distribution scheme to creditors.

G. Receiver's Recommendations

55. While the Receiver seized control of readily identifiable assets and operations, continued her diligence of identifying additional assets and liabilities, and accomplished significant liquidation of the Receivership assets, it is too soon to make a final recommendation as to how the Receivership Estate should be resolved. Accordingly, the Receiver recommends that the Receivership continue in order to allow the Receiver additional time to liquidate the remaining Receivership assets, participate in ongoing clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation, and determine how to resolve the Receivership Estate. The Receiver anticipates preparing and filing a proposed plan for an initial distribution of Receivership proceeds to the aggrieved investors before the filing of the next quarterly report. The Receiver further continues her efforts to enforce and collect on the Court's Agreed Judgment as to Defendant Carlos Goodspeed in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856.

H. Court Proceedings/Case Administration

56. On July 11, 2018, non-party Mile High Investments, LLC filed its Emergency Motion to Enforce the Court's Order Clarifying Liquidation of Aircraft and the Aircraft Purchase Agreement [Dkt. No. 267] ("Mile High Motion"). The Receiver filed her Response in opposition to the Mile High Motion [Dkt. No. 271] on July 20, 2018. Mile High filed its Reply [Dkt. No. 272] on July 24, 2018.
