(“BUCF”) (Bryant and BUCF, collectively, the “Bryant Defendants”) and Defendant Arthur F. Wammel (“Wammel”), Defendant Wammel Group, LLC (the “Wammel Group”), and Wammel Group Holdings Partnership (“WGHP”) (together Wammel, Wammel Group, and WGHP, the “Wammel Defendants”) receivership estates (together, the “Receivership Estate” or the “Receivership”) in the above-captioned case (the “Case”), files this Sixth Interim Fee

Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses (the “Sixth Interim Fee Application”), and in support thereof, respectfully states as follows:

I.
FEE REQUEST SUMMARY

1. This Sixth Interim Fee Application covers the period commencing on July 1, 2018 through September 30, 2018 (the “Application Period”) and is submitted in accordance with the Amended Order Appointing Receiver [Dkt. No. 48], the local rules of this Court, the Billing Instructions for Receivers in Civil Actions Commenced by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC Billing Instructions”), and other applicable orders of the Court.

2. The Sixth Interim Fee Application Period encompasses a time of continued progress in carrying out the Receiver’s duties under the Receivership Order. As described more fully in the Receiver’s Sixth Quarterly Report (defined below), since July 1, 2018 the Receiver and her team have been working diligently to liquidate the remaining assets of the Receivership Estate and actively participate in the ongoing clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation. For example, the Receiver and her team: (i) successfully moved for entry of agreed final judgment and agreed asset freeze against Defendant Carlos Goodspeed in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856; (ii) continued liquidation of the remaining Receivership assets; (iii) prepared for and participated in the Rule 26(f) attorney conferences with certain Winning Investors in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359; (iv) prepared for and participated in the Rule 26(f) attorney conference with certain Transferees in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360; (v) successfully moved to extend the deadline for service of summons and complaint in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360; (vi) coordinated with certain Winning Investors and preparing the Joint Report on Rule 26(f) Conference in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359; (vii) coordinated with certain Transferees and preparing the Joint Report on Rule 26(f) Conference in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360; (viii) worked with a financial consultant to perform forensic accounting and related analysis regarding, among other things, the intricate, overlapping Ponzi scheme operated by the Bryant and Wammel Defendants identified as part of the Receiver's investigation; (ix) satisfied on-going, ordinary course obligations of the Receivership Estate; (x) reported on the Receiver's activities to the Court and to investors; (xi) subpoenaed various individuals and entities; (xii) analyzed and reviewed submitted documentation from investors and non-investor creditors; (xiii) negotiated and coordinated settlements with investors and third parties relating to funds received from the Receivership Defendants; and (xiv) prepared for and actively participated in ongoing litigation against Carlos Goodspeed, certain Winning Investors, and certain Transferees.

3. The following tables summarize the fees and expenses the Receivership Estate, incurred for the Receiver, her counsel, and other professionals, respectively,¹ during the Application Period:

4. As further described herein, the Receiver seeks the Court's approval of invoices for interim fees and expenses, incurred between July 1, 2018 and September 30, 2018, in the amount of $110,200.93, which reflects the voluntary reduction and a more than 20% reduction in hourly rates across all timekeepers. The Court previously approved the professional fees and expenses totaling $765,103.11 in its Order Approving the Second Interim Fee Application, the professional fees and expenses totaling $219,776.31 in its Order Approving the Third Interim Fee Application, the professional fees and expenses totaling $244,207.97 in its Order Approving the Fourth Interim Fee Application, and the professional fees and expenses totaling $250,492.44 in its Order Approving the Fifth Interim Fee Application.

5. The following tables summarize the total balance of approved fees and expenses the Receivership Estate has incurred for the Receiver, her counsel, and other professionals, respectively:

⁸ The Receiver notes for the Court that the Amended First Interim Fee Applications [Dkt. Nos. 91, 92], which outlined the Receiver's, T&K's, and Veritas' fees and expenses between May 15, 2017 and June 30, 2017, were submitted on August 16, 2017. Because the Court denied these first fee applications as moot, the fees and expenses detailed therein have never been addressed and thus are not included in this table.

6. The Receiver first requests the Court's approval of invoices for interim fees and expenses of all professionals covering this Application Period of $110,200.93. Of the fees and expenses detailed herein, in recognition of the Case status and Receivership resources, at this time the Receiver is only seeking authority for payment of professional fees and expenses (as defined below) in the following amount:

Receiver	T&K	Veritas	Total Fees
$57,900.00	$252,300.93	$30,421.81	$340,622.74

Although the Receiver has funds to cover a more significant portion of fees to the Receiver and her counsel, at this time, in an effort to maximize the value of the estate for a future distribution, the Receiver requests payment of only $340,622.74 of professional fees and expenses.

7. For the reasons set forth below, the Receiver would respectfully show the following in support of the Sixth Interim Fee Application:

II.

114. Pursuant to this Court's Order Approving the Fifth Interim Fee Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses [Dkt. No. 284], the Receiver prepared a check to Veritas during the Application Period for the payment of authorized professional fees and expenses, which totaled $19,255.75. Veritas deposited this check during the Application Period. The Receiver also completed wire transfers for the payment of authorized professional fees and expenses to the Receiver and T&K, which totaled $25,000.00 and $225,000.00, respectively. These approved payments to the Receiver and T&K were made after the end of this Application Period and thus will be detailed in the next quarterly report.

115. Receiver and Retained Professional Fees. During the Application Period, the Retained Professionals (T&K and Veritas) provided services on behalf of the Receiver and the Receivership Estate. Specifically, the fees and expenses for the services of the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas total approximately $110,200.93 (the "Application Period Professional Fees").

116. These Application Period Professional Fees include a voluntary reduction of at least 20% by the Receivership Estate professionals from their standard hourly rates.

C. Work Performed for the Benefit of the Receivership Estate¹⁹

117. As further described in the Receiver's First Quarterly Report, Second Quarterly Report, Third Quarterly Report, Fourth Quarterly Report, Fifth Quarterly Report, and Sixth

¹⁹ The Receiver and T&K incorporate the Receiver's First Quarterly Report, Liquidation Plan for the Bryant Defendants, Agreed Order Granting Liquidation Against the Wammel Defendants, Second Quarterly Report, Third Quarterly Report, Fourth Quarterly Report, Fifth Quarterly Report, and Sixth Quarterly Report as if set out fully herein.

Quarterly Report, the Receiver, assisted by T&K and Veritas, performed numerous tasks in connection with her duties under the Receivership Order. During the Application Period, the Receiver worked diligently to liquidate the remaining assets of the Receivership Estate and actively participate in the ongoing clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation. The Receiver's tasks included (i) preserving hard and electronic data, (ii) analyzing thousands of documents, (iii) interviewing numerous creditors and investors, and (iv) working with various individuals and counsel to liquidate the remaining Receivership assets for distribution to creditors.

118. The date the Case is expected to close is presently unknown. The Receiver expects to continue her efforts to recover assets for the benefit of the Receivership Estate, which may require protracted litigation.

119. During the Third Application Period, the Receiver established a claims process for investors. Investors were notified by mail and electronic distribution. The Receiver and her team continue to review submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation. During the Fourth Application Period, the Receiver established a claims process for non-investor creditors in this Case. The Receiver and her team continue to review submitted claim notification forms and supporting documentation. Further, the Receiver's Liquidation Plans for the Receivership Defendants provided the Receivership Estate with additional liquid assets, and the Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated. With additional liquid assets available in the Receivership Estate, the Receiver will be able to propose a distribution scheme to creditors.

120. During the Application Period, Veritas reviewed and analyzed relevant documentation to identify transfers between certain entities, identified relevant accounts related to certain entities, and prepared a summary of relevant transactions between certain entities for use by the Receiver and her team. Furthermore, Veritas conferred with T&K and the Receiver regarding case strategy. All of these activities were done in furtherance of the Receiver identifying Receivership Estate assets and liabilities so that distributions can ultimately be made to investors and non-investor creditors.

121. Similarly, during the Application Period, the bulk of the work performed by T&K was related to (i) successfully moving for entry of agreed final judgment and agreed asset freeze against Defendant Carlos Goodspeed in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856; (ii) continuing liquidation of the remaining Receivership assets in the Receiver's possession; (iii) preparing for and deposing Brandi Bryant; (iv) preparing for and participating in the Rule 26(f) attorney conferences with certain Winning Investors in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359; (v) preparing for and participating in the Rule 26(f) attorney conference with certain Transferees in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360; (vi) successfully moving to extend the deadline for service of summons and complaint in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360; (vii) coordinating with certain Winning Investors and preparing the Joint Report on Rule 26(f) Conference in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359; (viii) coordinating with certain Transferees and preparing the Joint Report on Rule 26(f) Conference in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360; (ix) working with a financial consultant to perform forensic accounting and related analysis regarding, among other things, the intricate, overlapping Ponzi scheme operated by the Bryant and Wammel Defendants identified as part of the Receiver's investigation; (x) satisfying on-going, ordinary course obligations of the Receivership Estate; (xi) reporting on the Receiver's activities to the Court and to investors; (xii) subpoenaing various individuals and entities; (xiii) analyzing and reviewing submitted documentation from investors and non-investor creditors; (xiv) negotiating and coordinating settlements with investors and third parties relating to funds received from the Receivership Defendants; and (xv) preparing for and actively participating in ongoing litigation against Carlos Goodspeed, certain Winning Investors, and certain Transferees.

122. Since her appointment, the Receiver and her team have been working diligently to investigate and marshal assets of the Receivership Estate in order to bolster the amount available for distribution to stakeholders. At the end of the current Application Period, the known assets of the Receivership Estate include the following: Defendant Wammel Group's residential property – a 3,500 square-foot residence near Houston. As described more fully in the Receiver's Sixth Quarterly Report, in July 2018, the sale of the Aircraft closed and the purchaser submitted its application for registration of the Aircraft to the FAA. On September 5, 2018, the Receiver received the payment for the sale of the Aircraft. The Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated.

123. In addition to successfully liquidating Receivership assets, the Receiver and her team spent considerable time and resources (1) analyzing claims against third parties, (2) analyzing and reviewing submitted documentation from investors and non-investor creditors, (3) preparing for and participating in the Rule 26(f) attorney conferences in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359 and in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360, (4) participating in ongoing litigation against Carlos Goodspeed, certain Winning Investors, and certain Transferees, (5) coordinating with certain Winning Investors and certain Transferees and preparing the Joint Reports on the Rule 26(f) Conferences in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359 and in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360, and (6) successfully moving for entry of agreed final judgment and agreed asset freeze against Defendant Carlos Goodspeed in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856.

124. As explained throughout this Sixth Interim Fee Application and as described more fully in the Receiver's Sixth Quarterly Report, the Receiver and her team continued to make significant progress in unraveling the Bryant Defendants' and Wammel Defendants' fraud and in liquidating the remaining Receivership assets in order to realize the greatest return for creditors. As a result of these efforts, the Receiver and her team substantially increased the value of the Receivership Estate during the Application Period. As noted above, the Receiver anticipates additional funds will come into the Receivership Estate once the remaining Receivership assets are liquidated.

Summary of the Liquidation Until the End of the Application Period
Bryant Funds and Liquidation	$133,741.39
Wammel Funds and Liquidation	$1,225,839.44
Settlements	$858,900.00
Total²⁰	$2,218,480.83

IV. REQUEST FOR APPROVAL

125. Through this Sixth Interim Fee Application, the Receiver seeks interim approval of the fees and expenses of the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas subject to the Hold Back, as further described below.

126. As noted in the T&K Application, both the Receiver and the T&K professionals and paraprofessionals assisting the Receiver on this matter agreed to a voluntary reduction of their standard hourly rates. The T&K invoices attached hereto reflect that reduction, which represents a significant savings for the Receivership Estate. Further, T&K reviewed its billings, and, in such review, exercised appropriate judgment in an effort to ensure that time and expenses are properly billed and billing adjustments were properly made before generating invoices and filing this Sixth Interim Fee Application. T&K further reduced certain entries in light of the Receiver's limited resources, which reductions are also reflected in its invoices and total over $56,000 or over 38% of the total fees for the Application Period (as reflected in the Invoices attached hereto).

127. Hold Back. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, interim fee applications also “may be subject to a holdback in the amount of 20% of the amount of fees and expenses for each application filed with the Court” (the “Hold Back”). Dkt. No. 48 at ¶ 60. The Receivership Order further provides that “[t]he total amounts held back during the course of the receivership will be paid out at the discretion of the Court as part of the final fee application submitted at the close of the receivership.” Dkt. No. 48 at ¶ 60. Thus, the amount requested in this Sixth Interim Fee Application may be subject to the Hold Back.

128. In accordance with the SEC Billing Instructions, the Receiver submitted the Sixth Interim Fee Application to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) for review prior to submission to the Court. The SEC has reviewed the Sixth Interim Fee Application and advised the Receiver concerning certain formatting issues related to its invoices, and the Receiver has made such changes.

B. Fees of Veritas

132. Veritas performed limited work for the Receivership in July 2018, for which it did not bill the Receiver. Veritas did not perform any work for the Receivership in August 2018 and September 2018. Because Veritas incurred no fees or expenses during this Application Period, no invoices are attached hereto.

V.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST

133. Under governing law, following a determination that services were rendered and costs expended in furtherance of the Receivership, the Court may award compensation for the presented fees and costs. When determining an award of attorneys' fees, the Court should use the lodestar method of multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by the reasonable hourly rate. See, e.g., Louisiana Power & Light Co. v. Kellstrom, 50 F.3d 319, 323-24 (5th Cir. 1995) (citing Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). A reasonable hourly rate is the ordinary fee for similar work in the community. Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 718 (5th Cir. 1974).

134. As set out in more detail in the First Quarterly Report, the Second Quarterly Report, the Third Quarterly Report, the Fourth Quarterly Report, the Fifth Quarterly Report, and the Sixth Quarterly Report, the Receiver, assisted by T&K and Veritas, has made significant progress in unraveling the Bryant Defendants' and Wammel Defendants' fraud through her seizure, inventory, and investigation of the documents, data, assets, and liabilities of the Receivership Estate. Further, the T&K lead attorneys in this Case have expended significant amounts of time and energy in order to stabilize this Case, such as successfully liquidating the Bryant Defendants' assets and the Wammel Defendants' assets to provide the Receivership Estate with additional assets in order to propose a distribution plan to creditors and instituting ancillary litigation to further recover Receivership assets.

135. Further, the fees and expenses requested in this Sixth Interim Fee Application in connection with, among other things, liquidating assets of the Receivership Estate and actively participating in the ongoing clawback and fraudulent transfer litigation, in order to propose a distribution scheme to creditors are reasonable compared to the no less than $23,000,000 investor funds at risk.

136. Other factors support this Court awarding the requested fees and expenses in this Sixth Interim Fee Application. For instance, the fraud is alleged to have been ongoing since at least 2011, which requires extensive review of records and assessment of transfers and alleged business activities. In addition, Defendant Bryant is proceeding pro se, which has required additional conferences and investigation than is often needed when a defendant is represented by counsel. Also, the assets of the Receivership consist largely of personalty from the former residences of Defendant Bryant and Defendant Wammel as well as real property seized from the Wammel Defendants. Further, Defendant Bryant is involved in multiple businesses, all of which have required often tedious investigation across multiple cities.

137. For the reasons set forth above, the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas have incurred reasonable fees and costs consistent with the Receivership Order, and approval of these fees on an interim basis, subject to the Hold Back, is appropriate and warranted in consideration of the above-described services in this Case during the Application Period.

138. Of the fees and expenses detailed herein, in recognition of the Case status and Receivership resources, at this time the Receiver is only seeking authority for payment of $340,622.74. Although the Receiver has funds to cover a more significant portion of fees to the Receiver and her counsel, at this time, in an effort to maximize the value of the estate for a future distribution, the Receiver requests payment of only $340,622.74 of professional fees and expenses. The tables below show a breakdown of the fees incurred by the Receiver, T&K, and Veritas during the Application Period:

FEES REQUESTED FOR APPROVAL
(July 1, 2018 – September 30, 2018)

Receiver	T&K	Veritas	Total Fees
$7,900.00	$102,300.93	---	$110,200.93

FEES REQUESTED FOR PAYMENT

Receiver	T&K	Veritas	Total Fees
$57,900.00	$252,300.93	$30,421.81	$340,622.74

WHEREFORE, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Court enter an order (i) approving and authorizing, on an interim basis, the Application Period Professional Fees, totaling $110,200.93; (ii) authorizing payment of professional fees and expenses, totaling $340,622.74; and (iii) awarding such other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

DATED: November 14, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER APPROVING SIXTH INTERIM FEE APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

On this date, the Court considered the Receiver’s Sixth Interim Fee Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses (the “Sixth Interim Fee Application”).¹

The Court, having considering the relief requested in the Sixth Interim Fee Application, the invoices submitted in support, and the Certification included therein, finds that proper and adequate notice of the Sixth Interim Fee Application has been given and that no other or further notice is necessary and that the Application Period Professional Fees, totaling $110,200.93 (the “Fees and Expenses”), are reasonable and appropriate for the work performed and the expenses incurred.

The Court further finds that during the time period covered by the Sixth Interim Fee Application, the time spent, services performed, hourly rates charged, and expenses incurred by the Receiver and her retained professionals, Thompson & Knight LLP and Veritas Advisory Group, Inc., were reasonable and necessary for the Receiver to perform her Court-ordered duties.

Therefore, the Court is of the opinion that the relief requested in the Sixth Interim Fee Application should be GRANTED.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

- The Fees and Expenses, totaling $110,200.93, are approved, on an interim basis (the “Approved Fees and Expenses”).
- The Court authorizes immediate payment of $340,622.74 of the total professional fees and expenses outstanding in this matter.
- The Receiver shall apply to the Court for permission to pay any remaining portion of the Approved Fees and Expenses at such time as the Receiver, in her discretion, believes there to be sufficient funds in the Receivership Estate to pay the requested portion of the remaining Approved Fees and Expenses.
