REQUEST FOR SUPPLEMENTAL FINAL DISTRIBUTION

Jennifer Ecklund, the Court-appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) for Defendants Thurman P. Bryant, III (“Bryant”) and Bryant United Capital Funding, Inc. (“BUCF”) (Bryant and BUCF, collectively, the “Bryant Defendants”) and Defendant Arthur F. Wammel (“Wammel”), Defendant Wammel Group, LLC (the “Wammel Group”), and Wammel Group Holdings Partnership (“WGHP”) (together Wammel, Wammel Group, and WGHP, the “Wammel Defendants”) receivership estates (together, the “Receivership Estate” or the “Receivership”) in the above-captioned case (the “Case”), submits this request for approval of a proposed pro rata supplemental final distribution to investors.

I.
STATUS OF LIQUIDATION AND RECOVERY OF ASSETS

The Receiver now has $414,080.51 in the Receivership Estate. As described in the Receiver's First Quarterly Report, Second Quarterly Report, Third Quarterly Report, Fourth Quarterly Report, Fifth Quarterly Report, Sixth Quarterly Report, Seventh Quarterly Report, Eighth Quarterly Report, Ninth Quarterly Report, Tenth Quarterly Report, and Eleventh Quarterly Report, this net amount was funded from the liquidation of assets, the proceeds from settlement in the ancillary litigation against Carlos Goodspeed and Thurman P. Bryant, Jr. in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:17-cv-00856, against certain Winning Investors in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00359, against certain Transferees in Ancillary Civil Action No. 4:18-cv-00360, against Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (Case No. 4:18-cv-00452), and the balance of the Bryant Defendants' and the Wammel Defendants' accounts.

II.
ANALYSIS OF INVESTOR CLAIMS

Since the inception of the Receivership, the Receiver has actively solicited and obtained claims and supporting documentation from those investors who believe they are owed money from the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants. On December 1, 2017, the Receiver established a claims process for investors and provided investors with claims documentation to substantiate their investments with the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants. As described in greater detail in the Request for Interim Distribution [Dkt. No. 299] and the Motion to Approve Amended Interim Distribution List [Dkt. No. 316], the Receiver asked investors to provide her with documents evidencing the amount of their investment with the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants in order to compile a list of all net losing investors. This process proved to be somewhat complex, as it was difficult for some investors to sort out the money they actually invested with the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants from fictitious interest or profits they may have rolled over into a “new” investment. Other investors believed their investment is larger than the principal they originally invested based on fictitious accounting statements generated by the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants and provided to the investors over time. Other investors did not have supporting documentation substantiating the amounts they claim that they invested with the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants. To the extent investors did not submit completed claims forms, the Receiver relies on her forensic accountant’s review of the financial documentation for the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants to determine the net loss for each net losing investor.

The Receiver completed the distributions to net losing investors for the Request for Interim Distribution and the Motion to Approve Amended Interim Distribution List.<sup>1</sup> On March 6, 2020, the Receiver filed her Request for Final Distribution [Dkt. No. 362] and the Court granted the Request for Final Distribution on March 27, 2020 [Dkt. No. 367]. The Receiver began mailing distribution checks and communicating with net losing investors regarding their distributions in May 2020.

Additionally, from May 2020 to present, the Receiver made multiple attempts in writing and via telephone to discover the identities and mailing addresses and deliver distribution checks to all net losing investors. The Receiver made these multiple attempts with the purpose of doing everything in her power to give these net losing investors the benefit of the final distribution. Unfortunately, the Receiver was not able to locate or communicate with one investor—Steven <sup>1</sup> The Receiver distributed $444,587.04 of the total $450,000.00 approved amount to be distributed to net losing investors. The remaining $5,412.96 belongs to five individuals whom the Receiver could not locate despite strenuous efforts. These five investors—Cody Black, Randy and Georgia Hinze, Akber and Shirin Malik, Dorothy Madison, and Michelle Williams—were removed from the Final Distribution in accordance with the Court’s Order Granting the Receiver’s Request for Final Distribution [Dkt. No. 367].

Foley. The Receiver now requests Court approval to remove Steven Foley from the supplemental final distribution schedule and allow the money that was allocated for this investor from the final distribution and the money that would otherwise have been allocated for these investors in this supplemental final distribution to benefit the remaining net losing investors on the supplemental final distribution schedule.

Based upon the Net Losing Investor Distribution Schedule attached to the Request for Final Distribution [Dkt. No. 362] and the Receiver’s removal and inclusion of the aforementioned investor, the Receiver has identified 99 Net Losing Investors (the “Net Losing Investors”) for inclusion on the supplemental final distribution schedule (the “Net Losing Investors Claims”). See Net Losing Investor Supplemental Final Distribution Schedule, attached hereto as Exhibit A.<sup>23</sup> The Net Losing Investors have a collective principal loss balance of $21,061,337.42.

III.
PROPOSED DISTRIBUTION

The Receiver proposes and seeks permission from the Court to make a supplemental final distribution of $300,000.00 on the Net Losing Investor Claims, on a pro rata basis. A $300,000.00 distribution would pay 1.42% of the total Net Losing Investors Claims, meaning each investor would receive 1.42% of his or her allowed claim at this time. The distribution amount is calculated as follows:

Amount to be Distributed		$300,000.00		Distribution Percentage
Total Net Losing Investor Claims	=	$21,061,337.42	=	1.42%

<sup>2</sup> The Receiver notes for the Court that, as in the Final Net Losing Investor Distribution Schedule, the principal loss for investors Roland and Isabel (de Pedro) Solis is the overall net loss for the following investments: Roland and Isabel Solis; Grandchildren Fund (Solis); Grandchildren Fund (de Pedro); Aragonesa LLC; and Chico’s Venture, LLC.

<sup>3</sup> The Receiver further notes for the Court that, as in the Final Net Losing Investor Distribution Schedule, the principal loss for investor Trina Reyes is the overall net loss for the investments that she made in her personal capacity and on behalf of her prior corporate entity.

The Net Losing Investor Supplemental Final Distribution Schedule, attached hereto as Exhibit A, shows the exact amount each approved claim would receive through this supplemental final distribution. The Receiver proposes to provide each Net Losing Investor with a copy of this filing, which shows each approved claim amount and the method for calculating each claim.

IV. AUTHORITIES

In the July 2017 Amended Order Appointing Receiver [Dkt. No. 48], the Court found that “the appointment of a receiver in this action is necessary and appropriate for the purposes of marshaling and preserving all assets” of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants. In overseeing and administering an equitable receivership such as the instant case, this Court’s discretion in approving the proposed distribution plan is given great deference and may be disturbed on appeal only upon the showing of an abuse of discretion. See SEC v. Great White Marina & Rec., Inc., 428 F.3d 553, 556-57 (5th Cir. 2005); SEC v. Sharp Capital, Inc., 315 F.3d 541, 545 (5th Cir. 2003); SEC v. Forex Asset Mgmt. LLC, 242 F.3d 325, 331-32 (5th Cir. 2001). The plan of distribution proposed by the Receiver is consistent with plans approved by the SEC in other cases. See Great White, 428 F.3d at 556-57; Forex Asset, 242 F.3d at 331-32.

1. It is appropriate to determine the amount of the Net Losing Investors’ losses on a cash basis, without regard to the unpaid illusory, fictitious returns.

The Net Losing Investors’ losses were calculated on a “cash-in—cash-out” basis—the amount of principal invested less any returns, fees, or other funds received by the investor. The Net Losing Investors’ claims will not be increased by any “earned” but unpaid returns. Not only is this the most efficient method of calculating loss, it is the most fair. When confronted with similar situations and challenges to this method of establishing the loss amount, courts have upheld this method of determining a loss as fair and reasonable. See Forex Asset, 242 F.3d at 331-32

(affirming trial court's approval of plan that calculated each investor's allowed claim as a percentage of their loss as measured against the losses of all of the unpaid claimants as "fair and equitable").

2. It is appropriate to treat all the monies recovered as a "common fund" from which payment to all Net Losing Investors will be made.

The Receiver's proposed plan of distribution aggregates all available money into a single fund. No effort has been made to trace any specific investor's funds. From the earliest Ponzi scheme cases, courts have made clear that this is almost always the most equitable way to treat investors. See id. at 331 (district court did not abuse its discretion when it determined that, despite the fact that some of the funds available for distribution were segregated and traceable to one investor, allowing one investor to trace its funds and avoid a pro rata distribution among all of the investors would be an inequitable remedy).

The Receiver believes a common fund is especially important in this Case because the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants created a web of interlocking entities that they utilized in connection with the Ponzi scheme out of which this case arises. See August 15, 2017 Memorandum Opinion and Order [Dkt. No. 89] (the "Memorandum Opinion and Order") at 8 ("The Court finds that this is sufficient evidence to establish a Ponzi scheme."). As part of the Bryant Defendants' Ponzi scheme and directly violative of promises to BUCF investors, BUCF transferred its investors' funds to the Wammel Group, which in turn invested BUCF investor funds in high-risk options trading. See generally Memorandum Opinion and Order. The Wammel Defendants, by and through Wammel, also raised funds independent of BUCF funds, which Wammel used in the same way. See id. As this Court explained in its Memorandum Opinion and Order, the "[Bryant] Defendants transferred funds to the Wammel [Defendants], who then commingled [the Bryant] Defendants' funds with Wammel Group investors' funds and invested in high-risk options trading.” See id. at 8. In addition to commingling the Bryant Defendants’ and the Wammel Defendants’ funds, this Court acknowledged that the Wammel Defendants “failed to maintain proper accounting” and even “obscured accounting records” and “falsified documents to conceal [the Bryant] Defendants’ shortcomings.” See id. at 8-9. Ultimately, this Court noted that “the Receiver has produced sufficient evidence to prove commingling of assets such that segregation between assets used in the [Bryant] Defendants’ scheme and those of Wammel Parties’ investors cannot be done.” See id. at 11. Because the segregation of the Bryant Defendants’ funds and the Wammel Defendants’ funds simply cannot be done, the Receiver strongly believes it is appropriate to treat all the monies recovered as a common fund from which payment to all Net Losing Investors will be made.

The proposed distribution is consistent with the prevailing principles of equity and comports with plans approved in other SEC receiverships. Because the proposed distribution provides a fair process for distributing money to the Net Losing Investors, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Court approve the supplemental final distribution.

V.
ADMINISTRATION OF NON-INVESTOR CREDITORS CLAIMS

Since the inception of the Receivership, the Receiver has endeavored to list and identify all non-investor creditors who have been identified through the course of the Receiver’s investigation. See Non-Investor Creditors List, attached hereto as Exhibit B. In March 2018, the Receiver established a claims process for non-investor creditors and tendered claims forms to all non-investor creditors known to her. In response, the Receiver received a total of six completed claims forms from non-investor creditors. The Receiver has a long list of non-investor creditors who did not submit claims forms. Further, the Receiver has received inquiries and correspondence from multiple creditors of the Bryant Defendants and the Wammel Defendants who claimed to be owed money from prior obligations.

The Receiver recommends that the corpus of the distribution be allocated to the Net Losing Investors. As discussed more fully in Sections II and III, the Net Losing Investors collective principal loss balance is more than $20 million. Moreover, the Net Losing Investors only stand to receive a percentage of their lost investments. Accordingly, the Receiver's proposed distribution plan focuses solely on a supplemental final distribution to the Net Losing Investors and does not allocate any funds for purposes of satisfying any claimed amounts from non-investor creditors.

VI. CONCLUSION

The Receiver respectfully requests that this Court approve this supplemental final distribution and, if necessary, set a hearing and then enter an order authorizing the Receiver to make the distribution to the approved Net Losing Investors consistent with Exhibit A. The Receiver asks for such other and further relief, general or special, at law or in equity, to which she may otherwise be entitled.

DATED: December 30, 2020.
